Select examples from the teaching/learning activities in your particular curriculum piece that illustrate the following theological beliefs, consistent with the Reformed tradition.

1. All persons of the Trinity are included: God, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit.
2. Is there any indication that this material denies Jesus Christ as the only way to salvation?
3. God is shown to be a God of grace.
4. Both the humanity and divinity of Jesus Christ are portrayed
5. The concept of serving God through serving others is evident throughout.
6. Illustrations, examples and language treat all persons with respect.
7. The overall feeling regarding the material in question is one of contentment as to the appropriateness of the curriculum.
