

There will be no intergenerational dinner and no intergenerational game night in the month of January.

Stay tuned for future events.

RETURNING TO GOOD SHEPHERD

Welcome back a special event: Fellowship time each Sunday, 10:30-11:00, in the fellowship hall. Beginning January 26, experience social time with coffee and light snacks.

See you there!

The new American Flag is donated in honor of CPT Charles Black USMC Veteran, by Bill Morrow, US Army Veteran.

I want to thank everyone for all the prayers and support you have offered in this time of mourning. It has meant the world to me. Your love and support have been a shining light in this darkness that has surrounded me in these past two weeks.

Again, thank you and God Bless.
Frank Grantham

Book Review

Women of the Church book review will be March 29th. More details to follow. However, here is the selected book so you can get busy reading: "The Secret Book of Flora Lee" by Patti Callahan Henry.

There are over 20 copies in the library and it's available on Amazon.

Thank You to the student volunteers of the Brookwood Beta Club for coming out on Saturday, January 4th, to clean up the Community Garden. The hard working teens completed mulching the paths, cleaned up the shed and pulled winter weeds from plots. The garden is ready for Spring planting. There are 5 garden plots available to cultivate. Contact the church office office@goodshepherdpc.org or Chris Calia at ccalia@comcast.net for more information.

The Women of the Church is, once again, sponsoring the Valentine Boxes drive for our college students (family or friends) and deployed military.

Please send to the church office or contact Joanne Folger with the name and address of your individual; even if he/she received a box last year. There will also be a registration form in the fellowship hall. This information must be received so the individual will receive a box mailed accurately. We will collect through Feb. 2.
